Pierre Marchand is President and Founder of PJM Associates. He brings over twenty-five years of diversified experience in the corporate, private and public sectors, in Transformational coaching and training, facilitation, organizational development and the creation of unique solutions in the world of human behaviour and development.

Pierre is an articulate and effective communicator who conveys the “right” information without “sugar coating” it at all levels of any organization with integrity, conviction, and credibility. Leadership principles are always combined with practical clarity and specific business applications. Pierre is animated and dynamic and people enjoy his style and approach to individual and group dynamics. These skills were mastered in leading teams, in being a Human Resources Manager, in Organizational Development, in being Manager of a global Training and Development Program, in Coaching, in Training and as an Entrepreneur and Consultant.

Pierre is sincere, honest, straightforward, funny, focused, enlivening, and connected/related to people. He is passionate, transformational, inspirational and a powerful Leader, renowned for his unique talent and ability in integrating theory and academics into hands-on, practical strategies by creating a dynamic, engaging, interactive and inspirational learning environment. Pierre is customer-inspired and learner-centered – focused on helping individuals reach their full potential in their professional and personal development.

Sheri Andrunyk is the President and Owner of Insightful Communications and Women For Women. She generously shares her knowledge and experience gained from 25 years as a successful entrepreneur: 11 of those years she spent as a progressive and forward-thinking franchise owner in the beauty industry.

Sheri has extensive training and mentoring in business and direct sales; and has earned numerous awards for personal achievement and staff development. Through her intense commitment to higher learning, not to mention her ever-expanding and varied client base, Sheri has acquired considerable expertise and insights into many industries.

Sheri Andrunyk believes that, deep inside, we all know what’s best for our own life and business. She is a catalyst who brings exactly that to the forefront; empowering her clients with unexpected vision, wisdom and support. Her coaching guides you with passion to the next level, while maintaining the work/life balance that is best for you.

Being a communication expert makes Sheri an invaluable source in your professional or personal journey. As a Master NLP Practitioner, she uses Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP) techniques to help you create, anchor and reinforce productive, high-impact states. Sheri is masterful at managing time and resources for you and your organization. She has the ability to get you to focus on what is critical and helps you create alternative behaviours you can consistently use to achieve more than you thought was possible.

Sheri is a dynamic, energetic, powerful speaker, trainer, coach and consultant who is focused on her clients and will stop at nothing to ensure they achieve their full potential. A leader like no other, Sheri walks her talk ‘and then some’. She leads by example with integrity and commitment in everything she does, and gives 200 percent to you and your business so you have what you need to be the best that you can be.
